⭐ Twin Melodies · Reflect and Respond

I Identify the stringed instruments by the first letter of their names: S..., S..., S..., S..., M..., V..., G..., B....

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

Top row: Santoor, Sarangi, Sarod, Sitar

Bottom row: Mandolin, Violin, Guitar, Banjo

(The round-drum instrument is the banjo and the pear-shaped one is the mandolin; check the picture in your book.)

II Do you play a musical instrument? If given a choice, which one would you choose and why?

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

I do not play one yet. I would choose the flute because it is light, easy to carry and its sweet sound calms me.

III Is there any difference in the choice of music between children and elders? Why?

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

Yes. Children usually like new, fast and film or pop songs, while elders often prefer classical, devotional or old songs that they grew up with. Our age and experiences shape our taste.

IV Complete the paragraph with phrases from the box:

wearing a look of distress, bite the bullet, found words, lost in his thoughts, bring it up, throw a party, winding up, sweating on, come around

✔ ANSWER

1. winding up
2. wearing a look of distress
3. lost in his thoughts
4. bring it up
5. bite the bullet
6. come around
7. found words
8. throw a party

(Extra phrase: sweating on.)

Most of these are used figuratively, e.g. 'bite the bullet' = face a difficult situation bravely, 'come around' = change one's opinion; 'throw a party' and 'winding up' are close to their literal meaning.

⭐ Twin Melodies · Check Your Understanding (Act I)

I Complete the table:

Setting – Where: Iqbal's room; Description of the room: a small rack, ...; On the wall: ...

Children and instruments: 1. Iqbal: flute 2. ... 3. ... 4. ...

Speaker / words / reason: (a) 'Oh ho! Wow Shruti! You are a sensation now! ...' (b) 'There is need to worry Iqbal! You don't know papa.' (c) 'That's the spirit!'

✔ ANSWER

Description of the room: a small rack, a wooden table stacked with books

On the wall: posters of famous flute players Pandit Hariprasad Chaurasia and Shashank Subramanyam

Instruments: 2. Avinash: tabla 3. Peter: keyboard 4. Shruti: violin

Speaker	Words	Reason
Avinash	Oh ho! Wow Shruti! You are a sensation now! ...	The newspaper had praised Shruti's performance, so he wanted her to celebrate.
Shruti	There is need to worry Iqbal! ...	Her father is strict and thinks playing the violin to Western tunes is a desecration.
Peter	That's the spirit!	Shruti decided to bite the bullet and tell her parents at dinner.

II Do you think Shruti will gather the courage to speak to her father? Give a reason.

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

Yes. Her friends encouraged her and she promised them she would bring it up at dinner that night.

III What might be Shruti's father's reaction? Why?

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

He may be angry and refuse at first, because he strongly believes only classical Hindustani music is worth playing and dislikes Western tunes on the violin.

⭐ Twin Melodies · Check Your Understanding (Act II)

I Complete the summary using words from the box (two are extra):

disapproval, plea, absent-minded, setback, surprised, scolded, courage, firm, clash, relief

✔ ANSWER

1. absent-minded
2. courage
3. disapproval
4. plea
5. firm
6. scolded
7. clash
8. setback

(Extra words: surprised, relief.)

II Will Shruti's father go for the rehearsal? Support your answer with a reason.

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

Perhaps yes. He refused angrily, but Shruti's mother knows the truth and may persuade him to listen to the practice once before deciding.

III Do you think Shruti and her parents would understand one another? Why?

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

Yes. They love each other. Shruti respects her father's views and promises not to hide things again, and her parents care about her happiness, so they will talk and understand.

⭐ Twin Melodies · Check Your Understanding (Act III)

I Identify the true statements:

1. During the rehearsal, Shruti's parents enter the room and are overjoyed at her performance.

2. Shruti initially considers telling her friends that she can't join them for the performance, after practising one last time.

3. Shruti's father expressed that she had sung a few notes incorrectly during her performance.

4. Shruti's father had followed the family's tradition of being a violinist and worked very hard to achieve all that he did.

5. Shruti's mother helped her husband realise why he should support their daughter.

6. Shruti's father accepts that he underrated the potential of classical music.

✔ ANSWER

1. True – they enjoyed it and clapped with pride.
2. True – she says so in her aside.
3. False – he said she did not lose sight of the notes of the raga even once.
4. False – his family were vocalists; he went against their wishes to play the violin.
5. True – Nabin says Leela opened his eyes.
6. True – he says, 'I underestimated the power of our own music.'

⭐ Twin Melodies · Critical Reflection

I 1 (i) Extract: Shruti – 'There is need to worry Iqbal! ... I just don't know how to tell him in the right way!' Select the option that identifies Shruti's situation: A. confident B. indifferent C. content D. in a dilemma

✔ ANSWER

D. in a dilemma – she respects her father's views but also wants to play fusion music.

I 1 (ii) What does Shruti mean by 'the right way'?

✔ ANSWER

A way of telling her father that shows respect for his opinions and does not hurt or anger him, while still explaining her wish to try fusion music.

I 1 (iii) The extract reflects the generational gap in understanding art and tradition because ____.

✔ ANSWER

her father believes only classical Hindustani music is worthy, while Shruti, of the younger generation, wants to try playing the violin to Western tunes.

I 1 (iv) Explain how Iqbal's words were meant as an assurance to Shruti.

✔ ANSWER

By saying 'All ways are right ways... he will understand', Iqbal tells her not to worry about the perfect words; her father loves her and will understand if she speaks honestly.

I 1 (v) Fill in the blank with a phrase from the extract: The critics argued that only films which provoke thoughtful discussion are ____.

✔ ANSWER

of any worth

I 2 (i) Extract: Nabin – 'I underestimated the power of our own music...' Nabin's breakthrough highlights a bridge between ____. A. personal ambition and professional success B. traditional values and modern expressions C. strict discipline and casual learning D. historical techniques and futuristic innovations

✔ ANSWER

B. traditional values and modern expressions – he accepts that classical music can live within fusion music.

I 2 (ii) The extract uses the word 'lost' both in the sense of losing ____ and physical separation.

✔ ANSWER

losing her connection to their own music and tradition (losing her to another style of music)

I 2 (iii) In 'Shruti hugs her parents', which word does not show what it conveys? reconciliation, harmony, duty, acceptance, understanding duty – the hug shows love, reconciliation and acceptance, not a duty.

I 2 (iv) What can be inferred about Shruti's future in music following her father's trust and support?

✔ ANSWER

With her family's support she will practise freely and confidently, explore fusion music and still respect her classical roots, so she is likely to grow into a fine musician.

I 2 (v) Identify the phrase that refers to the uniqueness of each artist's journey and style.

✔ ANSWER

'each bay, its own wind'

II 1 Justify the title 'Twin Melodies'. How does the play explore the theme of tradition and modernity?

✔ ANSWER

The 'twin melodies' are classical Hindustani music and Indo-Western fusion music, and also the two generations, father and daughter, both violinists.

Nabin stands for tradition and Shruti for modern experiment. At first they clash, but when Nabin hears the group play a raga without losing its notes, he sees that both can live together. Leela reminds him that he too broke tradition by choosing the violin. So the play shows that tradition and modernity can blend in harmony.

II 2 What are the different perspectives of Peter, Iqbal and Avinash regarding confronting figures of authority? What do their attitudes reveal about them?

✔ ANSWER

Peter suggests a simple, practical way: just tell her parents about the 4–5 practice. He is cheerful and supportive ('That's the spirit!').

Iqbal believes in honest talk: 'All ways are right ways... he will understand.' He jokes that he has scolding for breakfast, showing he is easy-going and caring.

Avinash is direct and bold: delaying makes things worse; the worst is a little scolding and the father will come round. He is frank and realistic.

All three are loyal friends who give Shruti courage.

Q 3 Analyse the character of Nabin Sharma. How does his attitude towards music evolve?

✔ ANSWER

Nabin is a master violinist and principal of a music school. He is strict, disciplined (one performance in six months) and proud of classical Hindustani music; he calls fusion 'phoo' music.

He is also loving and humorous at home. When he hears the group, he is moved, praises the soulful raga, offers them the music room and admits he underestimated 'our own music'. Remembering his own struggle against tradition, he becomes open-minded and trusts Shruti.

Q 4 How does the play use Shruti's internal conflict to explore duty towards family versus personal passion?

✔ ANSWER

Shruti loves and respects her father and does not want him to feel she ignores his opinions; this is her duty to family. She also wants to try fusion music; this is her passion.

She hides practices, struggles for words and even plans to quit after one last practice (aside). In the end honest communication and her mother's help show that family duty and passion need not be opposites.

II 5 Evaluate the effectiveness of the play's conclusion. Does it realistically address the conflicts?

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

The ending is happy and satisfying: the father hears the music, sees its quality and blesses Shruti. It is realistic because the change has reasons—he hears the performance himself and Leela reminds him of his own past.

Some may feel the change is a little quick, but it fits the short play and its message of understanding.

II 6 Assess how well the role of cultural diversity contributes to the storyline.

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

The group itself is diverse—Shruti, Iqbal, Avinash and Peter—and so are the instruments: violin, flute, tabla and keyboard. Their music joins Indian ragas and Western tunes.

This diversity creates the conflict with the traditional father and also its solution, showing that different cultures together make beautiful 'twin melodies'.

⭐ Twin Melodies · Vocabulary and Structures in Context

🧪 Twin Melodies · Speaking Activity

I 1 Speak aloud the lines from the table, focusing on stress and intonation.

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

Practise each line as the table shows, e.g. 'I DON'T want papa to feel that I don't care... because I DO' – lower, worried tone at first, rising at the end.

'Tonight, at dinner, I PROMISE to BRING THIS UP' – firm, decisive tone, pitch rising on 'bring this up'.

12 Practise speaking a few other sentences from the play.

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

'No is the answer.' – stress 'No'; calm but firm, falling tone.

'Wah, how soulful!' – stress 'soulful'; warm, rising tone of praise.

'All ways are right ways, Shruti.' – stress 'all' and 'right'; gentle, reassuring tone.

⭐ Twin Melodies · Writing Task

1 In groups, write a play script based on the beginning of the story of Anuradha, the tabla player whose vocalist father disapproves.

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

Unbroken Rhythm

Characters: Anuradha (a teenage tabla player); Father (a vocalist and music teacher); Mother; Rohan (her elder brother)

Setting: Anuradha's living room in the evening. A tabla set lies in a corner.

(Anuradha sits wondering, holding the invitation card.)

Rohan: (cheerfully) Ahem-ahem! Our star is lost in thought again!

Anuradha: (sighing) Bhaiya, the invitation is for Sunday... but Papa...

Mother: (softly) You have worked so hard, beta. Tell him.

Anuradha: (Aside) If I tell him, he will be upset. If I don't, I will lose my dream.

(Father enters with a harmonium.)

Father: (firmly) Anuradha, have you done your riyaz of vocal music today?

Anuradha: Papa ... er ... I have been invited to play the tabla at the city music festival. I ... I want to perform.

Father: (calmly but firmly) The tabla only accompanies. A real musician sings. Your voice is your gift.

Rohan: Papa, her teachers say she is extraordinary. Please hear her once.

Mother: You always say every artist must find her own sur. Let her find hers.

(Silence. Father looks at the tabla.)

Father: (after a pause) Hmmm ... Play for me.

(Anuradha plays a fast teen taal. Father's fingers begin to tap.)

Father: (slowly smiling) Your rhythm is pure. Go to the festival. I will be in the front row.

Anuradha: (hugging him) Thank you, Papa!

📘 Twin Melodies · Learning Beyond the Text

I 1 Why do we not use inverted commas to convey the dialogues?

✔ ANSWER

In a play script the speaker's name followed by a colon shows who speaks, so inverted commas are not needed.

I 2 Where do we use colons?

✔ ANSWER

After the speaker's name, to introduce his or her words.

I 3 What is written within the brackets? What do these convey?

✔ ANSWER

Stage directions—how the words should be spoken (e.g. very loudly, calmly but firmly) and the actions (e.g. picking up a newspaper, getting up). They are not spoken aloud.

I 4 How does it help the actors?

✔ ANSWER

They tell the actors what tone, feeling and actions to use, so the scene is performed correctly.

III Find out more about indigenous instruments used in your region.

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

- Bamboo flute (bansuri) – made from bamboo
- Ektara – one string on a dried gourd with a bamboo neck
- Dhol / dholak – wooden shell with animal-hide heads
- Shankh – a conch shell blown at festivals and prayers

Collect pictures and write where and when each is played in your area.

IV In groups of five, select objects around yourself to create a rhythm and present it.

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

Example: tap a steel tumbler with a spoon, drum on a desk, shake a bottle with pebbles, clap and stamp in a 4-beat pattern (tap–tap–clap–shake), then speed up together for a crescendo.

V Read the book Rigmarole and Other Plays by Sai Paranjpye.

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

Read it in your library and note one funny scene, e.g. how the silly King and his nine Ministers deal with a bed bug.

⭐ A Friend Found in Music · Reflect and Respond

I 1 What kind of music do you prefer to listen to —vocal or instrumental?

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

I prefer vocal music because I enjoy the words as well as the tune.

I 2 Name your favourite musician(s).

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

Lata Mangeshkar and A. R. Rahman.

I 3 Give reasons for your choice.

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

Lata Mangeshkar's voice is sweet and full of feeling, and A. R. Rahman mixes Indian and Western music in new ways.

A Friend Found in Music · Check Your Understanding

I Complete the poet's diary with words from the poem (blanks 1–8).

✔ ANSWER

1. shore
2. rhythm
3. core
4. therapy
5. spirits
6. cheerful
7. needed
8. care

II 1 The phrase 'moves me' in 'That moves me to the core' is an example of ____.

✔ ANSWER

personification – the rhythm is shown acting like a person that moves her feelings deeply.

II 2 List the metaphors for music and rewrite them as similes.

✔ ANSWER

Metaphors: music is the ocean, the rhythm, the therapy, the needed friend.

- Music is like an ocean that pulls me to the shore.

- Music is like a rhythm that moves me to the core.
- Music is as healing as therapy.
- Music is as dependable as a needed friend.

II 3 What is the rhyme scheme of the poem? What impact does it have?

✔ ANSWER

abcb in each stanza (shore/core, blue/through, there/care). It gives the poem a musical, song-like flow, which suits a poem about music.

II 4 What is the poet's purpose in using the word 'music' repetitively?

✔ ANSWER

To stress how important music is to her and keep it at the centre of every idea; the repetition also creates rhythm.

II 5 What is the message the poet wishes to convey?

✔ ANSWER

Music is a faithful friend: it comforts us when we are sad, lifts our spirits, helps us through hard times and is present in our happy moments.

II 6 Identify the mood of the poem: (i) nostalgic (ii) thoughtful (iii) amused (iv) playful

✔ ANSWER

(ii) thoughtful – the poet reflects on what music means to her.

II 7 Give evidence from the poem to support that the speaker is the poet herself.

✔ ANSWER

She uses the first person throughout—'pulls me', 'I need when I feel blue', 'lifts my spirits', 'I'm most cheerful'—and shares her own personal feelings.

⭐ A Friend Found in Music · Critical Reflection

I (i) Extract: 'Music is the therapy / I need when I feel blue...' The phrase 'feel blue' indicates ____.

✔ ANSWER

feeling sad or low

I (ii) Identify the line which shows music makes the poet happy.

✔ ANSWER

'Music lifts my spirits'

I (iii) What does the last line of the extract signify?

✔ ANSWER

'To make sure I pull through' means music helps her get through difficult times successfully.

I (iv) True or false: Music plays a vital role in the poet's life.

✔ ANSWER

True

I (v) Select the central idea: A. Music brings comfort during sadness. B. Music is a necessity in times of happiness. C. Music improves our ability to pull heavy loads. D. Music is a source of knowledge and excitement.

✔ ANSWER

A. Music brings comfort during sadness.

II 1 How is music able to move the poet 'to the core'?

✔ ANSWER

Its rhythm touches her deepest feelings. Like an ocean pulling her to the shore, it draws her in and stirs her heart completely.

Q 2 Why does the poet compare music to a 'needed friend'?

✔ ANSWER

Because, like a true friend, music is always there for her—especially when no one else seems to care—and it comforts and supports her.

Q 3 Explain the poet's attitude towards music.

✔ ANSWER

She is deeply grateful and loving towards music. She sees it as her healer, her strength and her constant companion in both sad and happy times.

Q 4 Support the opinion that this poem has a universal appeal.

✔ ANSWER

Everyone feels sad, happy or lonely at times, and almost everyone turns to music then. The simple words and common feelings make every reader relate to the poem.

II 5 Compare your experience of music with the feelings expressed in the poem.

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

Like the poet, I listen to songs when I feel low and they cheer me up. Before exams, soft music calms me. On happy days I sing along, so music is my friend too.

🧪 A Friend Found in Music · Speaking Activity

I Role play: music teacher (encourages music classes), Student 1 (confused – music may take time from studies), Student 2 (music learner – music is beneficial, time can be managed), Parent (doubtful, later supportive).

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

Teacher: Good morning. I'd like Riya to join the music classes after school. She has a lovely voice.

Student 1: But ma'am, won't music take away time from my studies?

Student 2: I learn the tabla, and it actually helps me concentrate. I practise for half an hour and plan my study time.

Parent: I am not sure. Her exams are important.

Teacher: The classes are only twice a week. Music reduces stress and improves memory.

Student 2: I made a timetable; my marks have improved since I started.

Parent: That makes sense. If she keeps a timetable, I will support her.

Student 1: Thank you! I'll manage my time and give it a try.

II Find out about the origin of the seven swaras of Indian classical music.

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

The seven swaras are Sa (Shadja), Re (Rishabh), Ga (Gandhar), Ma (Madhyam), Pa (Pancham), Dha (Dhaivat) and Ni (Nishad).

They are traced back to the chanting of the Sama Veda. Tradition also links each note to a sound in nature, such as the peacock's call for Sa and the cuckoo's song for Pa. Ask your music teacher for more details.

III Share poems and songs about music in English and your own language and make a collection.

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

Collect, for example, this poem, 'Music' by Walter de la Mare, and songs in your own language about music; write each on a sheet with the poet's name and make a class scrapbook.
