UNIT 2 · CHAPTER 4

4 The Unlikely Best Friends

📖 Before we read

II.1 What can be the meaning of ‘unlikely’?

✔ ANSWER

‘Unlikely’ means not expected or not likely to happen.

II.2 Can you think of some unlikely friends?

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

A dog and a cat, or a cow and a leopard, can become friends even though we do not expect it.

💬 Let us discuss

1 Talk about the things that Gajaraj and Buntee did together.

✔ ANSWER

They played together. They shared food. They went to the pond together. Gajaraj splashed water on Buntee. Buntee rode on Gajaraj’s back.

2 Why did the farmer hug Buntee?

✔ ANSWER

Buntee was his lost dog. The farmer was glad to find him again, so he hugged him.

3 Do you think Buntee will leave Gajaraj and go home with the farmer?

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

Buntee will go home with the farmer because he is tied with a rope, but he will miss Gajaraj and be sad.

1 (After Part II) Why did Gajaraj not eat his food?

✔ ANSWER

Gajaraj was missing his friend Buntee, so he was sad and did not eat.

2 (After Part II) Who were friends at the end of the story?

✔ ANSWER

Gajaraj and Buntee were friends again, and the mahout and the farmer also became friends.

🤔 Let us think and reflect

I.1(i) Complete with one word: mahout : kind :: Gajaraj : ____

✔ ANSWER

sad

I.1(ii) The mahout was a good caretaker because he gave ____ to Gajaraj and a ____ in the pond.

✔ ANSWER

food; bath

I.1(iii) What do you think is the difference between a friend and a caretaker?

✔ ANSWER

A caretaker looks after our needs like food and bath. A friend also plays with us, shares our feelings and keeps us happy.

I.2(i) The farmer uses the word ____ to refer to the elephant.

✔ ANSWER

friend

I.2(ii) How did the farmer know that Buntee was hungry?

✔ ANSWER

Buntee had not touched his food ever since he was brought home.

I.2(iii) Why did the farmer remove the rope with which he had tied Buntee?

✔ ANSWER

He understood that Buntee was missing Gajaraj. He could not see Buntee go hungry, so he set him free to go to his friend.

I.2(iv) Complete with one word: Gajaraj : Buntee :: ____ : farmer

✔ ANSWER

mahout

II Give two examples to show that Gajaraj was very happy to have a friend.

✔ ANSWER

He playfully splashed water on Buntee in the pond. He picked Buntee up with his trunk and gave him a ride on his back. (He also shared his food with him.)

III How did the mahout come to know that Gajaraj was sad?

✔ ANSWER

Gajaraj did not touch his favourite food for days, but there was nothing wrong with his tummy. So the mahout guessed he was missing his friend.

IV Why do you think Buntee licked the farmer's hand?

✔ ANSWER

To thank the farmer and show his love for setting him free to go to Gajaraj.

V What was 'unlikely' about the friendship of Gajaraj and Buntee?

✔ ANSWER

Gajaraj was a huge royal elephant and Buntee was a small dog. No one expects such different animals to become best friends.

📘 Let us learn

1 Fill up the opposites of the hint words in the puzzle 'We are opposites!'.

✔ ANSWER

Across:

3. unkind — kind
7. yelped — laughed
8. awake — asleep
9. relieved — worried
10. missing — found

Down:

1. started — finished
2. appeared — disappeared
4. sad — delighted
5. untouched — touched
6. hate — love

2 Complete the paragraph with some of the words you have used in the puzzle.

✔ ANSWER

My pencil was missing. I was very worried (sad) as it was a gift from my friend. I woke up my elder brother who was asleep on the bed. I told him that my pencil seemed to have disappeared. He laughed and told me to look under my pillow. I was delighted when I found the pencil there.

3 Put the verbs from the story in the correct column (Simple Past, Past Progressive, Past Perfect).

✔ ANSWER

Simple Past: looked, gave, hated, noticed, went, served, told, asked, felt, touched, joined, arrived, threw

Past Progressive: was looking, was missing, was munching

Past Perfect: had ordered, had followed, had remained, had tied

3 Select the correct form of the verb to complete the passage.

✔ ANSWER

The farmer came back and noticed that Buntee was sad. He had tied Buntee with a rope the day before. He asked Buntee why he was sad. The farmer felt that Buntee was missing Gajaraj and set him free.

4 Discuss ‘neither...nor’ and ‘either...or’ with your teacher.

✔ ANSWER

‘Neither...nor’ joins two negative choices: Neither Shikha nor Anuj likes to tell stories (both do not like it). ‘Either...or’ shows a choice between two things: Either Bhavesh or Abha made this painting (one of them made it).

🎧 Let us listen

1 Use exact words from the story to fill up the missing details in the paragraph.

✔ ANSWER

The leopard is a wild animal but it became a friend of a cow. When the leopard grew up, it left the village. It came in the night to meet the cow. The leopard would sit beside the cow. They also played together. Villagers were surprised at their friendship.

2 Number the sentences in the correct order.

✔ ANSWER

1. The cow took care of the leopard cub as a mother.
2. The leopard left the village after growing up.
3. The leopard came to meet the cow at night.
4. The leopard stopped coming regularly.

🗣 Let us speak

1 Talk to your friend and find out your common likes and dislikes. Tell your classmates about your friend.

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

My friend and I like to play. Both of us want to play cricket after school. I like to draw but my friend likes to sing. We are different as she is talkative and I am quiet.

✍️ Let us write

1 Write six sentences about your friend. Mention how you are similar and different.

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

My friend Riya and I study in the same class. Both of us like reading stories. I like to play badminton but Riya likes to play kho-kho. Unlike me, she is very talkative. Neither of us likes to eat bitter gourd. We are different, but still we are the best of friends.

🔭 Let us explore

1 Find and read another Jataka story.

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

'The Monkey and the Crocodile' is a Jataka tale. A clever monkey saves his life by telling the crocodile that he has left his heart on the tree.

2 Discuss how the relationship between humans and elephants has changed.

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

Elephants are part of our history, festivals and religion. Today forests are being cut, so elephants come into villages and fields looking for food. We must protect forests and elephant corridors so that people and elephants can live safely.

✔ ANSWER

judgements

IV Give one reason why we can say that this poem is a prayer.

✔ ANSWER

The poet asks for help to be a good friend, using words like ‘May my friendships always be’ and ‘Let me’, as we do in a prayer.

V Why does the speaker ‘want to do more’ for her friend?

✔ ANSWER

She feels blessed to have special friends, so she wants to give her very best and help make their wishes come true, not just share their hopes and plans.

VI Do you think that the speaker knows about the wishes of her friend? How can we say so?

✔ ANSWER

Yes. She says her friends share their hopes and plans with her, so she knows their wishes and wants to make them come true.

VII Do you also pray for your friend? What do you wish for?

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

Yes. I pray that my friend stays healthy and happy and does well in studies.

💬 Let us discuss

1 Mario was very proud of having so many friends. True or False?

✔ ANSWER

True

2 What did the grandfather take from the attic?

✔ ANSWER

An invisible, magic chair (Mario could see nothing in his hand).

3 Will Mario face any challenges?

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

Yes. The chair is invisible, so it will be tricky for him to sit on it.

4 Will Mario be able to use the magic?

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

Yes, if he keeps trying and manages to sit on the chair, the magic will work.

1 (After Part II) Mario successfully sat on the invisible chair on his first attempt. True or False?

✔ ANSWER

False

2 (After Part II) Mario's grandfather challenged him to a bet of ____.

✔ ANSWER

fruit chaat

3 (After Part II) Match the characters with their action.

✔ ANSWER

Guneet, Asma and Deepa — (i) held Mario up, so he wouldn't fall.

(ii) made fun of Mario's attempts — the other classmates.

🤔 Let us think and reflect

I.1(i) The chair is ____ and ____.

✔ ANSWER

special; invisible

I.1(ii) Why was it tricky to sit on the chair?

✔ ANSWER

Because it was invisible, so Mario could not see it.

I.1(iii) Why does Mario's grandfather call the chair 'special'?

✔ ANSWER

Because it is magic. If Mario manages to sit on it, he will be able to tell who his real friends are.

I.2(i) Mario says there was a technical problem because ____.

✔ ANSWER

he could not see the chair and missed the seat

I.2(ii) Mario's friends were very caring and helpful. True or False?

✔ ANSWER

False. Most of them laughed and made fun of him; only Guneet, Asma and Deepa helped him.

I.2(iii) Mario wouldn't give up. This shows he is ____. (a. strong-willed B. supportive C. loving d. hard-working)

✔ ANSWER

a. strong-willed

II.1 What was the bet about?

✔ ANSWER

Grandfather bet Mario a fruit chaat that he did not have as many friends as he thought; many were only companions or partners.

II.2 What happened when Mario sat on the chair for the first time?

✔ ANSWER

He could not see the chair, missed it and fell on his backside. His classmates had a good laugh.

II.3 How was Mario able to find his real friends?

✔ ANSWER

When he finally ‘sat’ in mid-air, he saw that Guneet, Asma and Deepa were holding him up so he wouldn’t fall. The others only made fun of him. So he knew these three were his real friends.

II.4 Do you think the magic chair test was good? Why do you say so?

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

Yes. It showed who cared for Mario when he was in trouble and who only laughed at him.

II.5 What does ‘friends for life’ mean to you?

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

Friends who stay with us and care for us all our life, in good and bad times.

II.6 Mention any other way that would help you find out who are your 'real friends'.
