UNIT 1 · CHAPTER 1

A Bottle of Dew

💬 Let us discuss (Part I)

1 What did Rama Natha believe?

✔ ANSWER

He believed there was a magic potion that could turn any object into gold.

2 How did the sage help Rama Natha?

✔ ANSWER

The sage told him how to make the potion: plant banana plants, water them with his own hands, collect five litres of morning dew from the leaves and bring it to him.

3 Do you think Rama Natha will be able to collect the dew? Give a reason.

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

Yes. He wants the potion very much, so he will work hard, plant many banana plants and collect the dew patiently, even if it takes years.

💬 Let us discuss (Part II)

1 Why was Rama Natha angry?

✔ ANSWER

Nothing happened when he sprinkled the dew on the copper vessel. It did not turn to gold, so he felt cheated and thought he had wasted six precious years of his life.

2 How did Rama Natha and Madhumati create wealth?

✔ ANSWER

Rama Natha worked hard on his land and grew a huge banana plantation. Madhumati sold the bananas in the market. Their hard work gave them a box full of gold coins.

🤔 Let us think and reflect

I.1(i) Complete the sentence: Rama Natha did not 'give up' because ____.

✔ ANSWER

he strongly believed that the magic potion existed and wanted to learn how to make it.

I.1(ii) A. What happened: People promised to tell Rama Natha about the magic potion. Write the outcome.

✔ ANSWER

Outcome: They cheated him often.

I.1(ii) B. What happened: Rama Natha was spending a lot of money. Write the outcome.

✔ ANSWER

Outcome: Madhumati was worried and sure that soon they would be without money.

I.1(iii) A. Madhumati was troubled about what her husband did. (True/False)

✔ ANSWER

True

I.1(iii) B. Rama Natha was very happy digging his fields. (True/False)

✔ ANSWER

False

I.1(iii) C. The sage wanted to show the right path to Rama Natha. (True/False)

✔ ANSWER

True

I.2(i) Choose the option that lists the events in the correct order.

✔ ANSWER

(b) B, A, D, C, E

I.2(ii) Fill in the blank: Seeing that the plant had dried up, the gardener ____ some water on it.

✔ ANSWER

sprinkled

I.2(iii) How might Rama Natha have felt when nothing happened to the copper vessel?

✔ ANSWER

He might have felt shocked, disappointed and angry. He felt cheated and thought he had wasted six years of his life.

II.1 What did the sage ask Rama Natha to do to make the magic potion?

✔ ANSWER

He asked him to plant banana plants, water them regularly with his own hands, collect the morning dew from their leaves in winter, store it in a bottle and bring five litres of it to him.

II.2 Why did the sage ask Rama Natha to do everything himself?

✔ ANSWER

He wanted Rama Natha to work hard on his own land, so that he would learn that wealth comes from hard work, not magic.

II.3 How could Rama Natha have a big banana plantation after six years?

✔ ANSWER

He cleaned his empty fields, planted rows of banana plants and looked after them carefully. Over the years he planted more and more plants, so he had a huge plantation.

II.4 How did the sage make Rama Natha believe that there is no magic potion?

✔ ANSWER

He let Rama Natha see that the dew did not turn the copper vessel into gold. Then he showed him the box of gold coins that Madhumati had earned by selling bananas, and explained that their hard work, not magic, had created this wealth.

II.5 Fill in the 'before' and 'after' table about Rama Natha.

✔ ANSWER

Before (i): He spent all his time trying to learn about the magic potion.

Before (ii): He did not look after his land and wasted a lot of money.

After (i): He cleaned his fields and planted rows of banana plants.

After (ii): He looked after the plants with his own hands and worked even harder on his plantation.

📘 Let us learn

1 Use the words in the box to complete the paragraph. (Two words are extra.)

✔ ANSWER

Blanks in order: huge, luck, difficult, promised, cheated, remember.

Extra words: spending, market. There was a farmer who had a huge coconut plantation. He worked hard and did not depend on luck. Every day was difficult but he did not give up. One day, a man bought a bag of coconuts from him, and promised to pay him the money the next day. Days passed and the man did not pay him anything. The farmer felt cheated. About two months later, he met the same man and asked him about his money. The man said, “Oh! I had forgotten. Now, I remember buying coconuts from you.” And he paid the money.

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

(Scene 1: Rama Natha’s house)

Madhumati: You are spending all our money on this magic potion. Soon we will have nothing!

Rama Natha: Don’t worry. I will find it one day. (Scene 2: Rama Natha meets the sage Mahipati)

Rama Natha: Sir, do you know how to make the magic potion?

Sage: Yes, but it is difficult. Plant banana plants, water them with your own hands and collect five litres of morning dew from their leaves. (Scene 3: Six years later)

Rama Natha: Here is the dew, Sir. Please make the potion.

Sage: (mutters over the bottle) Try it out.

Rama Natha: (sprinkles drops on a copper vessel) Nothing has happened! This is cheating. I have wasted six years!

Sage: Madhumati, please bring your box. (She opens a box full of gold coins.)

Sage: There is no magic potion. Your hard work created this wealth.

Rama Natha: Now I understand. I will work even harder on my plantation.

7. woods — (vi) a smaller area of forest with similar kind of trees

🤔 Let us think and reflect

I Look at the pictures and number them in the order that they happen in the poem.

✔ ANSWER

1 — Bottom left: the Raven picks up the piece of food from the ground. 2 — Bottom right: the Raven sits on a branch with the food and the Fox looks up at him. 3 — Top left: the Fox praises the Raven and asks him to sing. 4 — Top right: the Fox walks away with the food in his mouth.

II.1(i) 'Such feathers' refer to ____ feathers.

✔ ANSWER

A. shiny and beautiful

II.1(ii) Why would the birds of the woods call the Raven 'King'?

✔ ANSWER

The Fox says that the Raven is so handsome that if he could also sing well, the other birds would make him their King. He says this only to flatter the Raven.

II.1(iii) Why does the Fox address the Raven as 'Sir'?

✔ ANSWER

He wants to show false respect and flatter the Raven, so that the Raven feels proud and opens his beak to sing.

II.2(i) Why did the Raven open his beak?

✔ ANSWER

He was proud and pleased by the Fox's sweet words, so he opened his beak to sing.

II.2(ii) Complete with one word from the lines:
Fox : clever :: Raven : ____

✔ ANSWER
foolish

III Why does the Raven forget that his voice is just a croak?

✔ ANSWER
The Fox’s praise makes him so proud that he forgets his voice is only a croak and wants to show off by singing.

IV How does Reynard make the Raven sing?

✔ ANSWER
He praises the Raven’s looks and feathers, calls him ‘Sir’ and says that the birds of the woods would call him King if he sang.

V Why does Reynard say that pride is not wise?

✔ ANSWER
Because the Raven’s foolish pride made him open his beak, and he lost his food to the Fox.

VI Give one reason why the teaching is quite a surprise.

✔ ANSWER

The Raven expected to be praised and called King, but instead he lost his food and was laughed at.

VII Imagine someone praises you too much. How would you react?

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

I would thank the person politely, but I would not become proud. I would think carefully about why the person is praising me so much before doing anything.

📘 Let us learn

I Write the rhyming words from the poem.

✔ ANSWER

Stanza 1: (i) limb–him (ii) beak–seek

Stanza 2: (i) word–bird (ii) sing–King

Stanza 3: (i) joke–croak (ii) pride–eyed

Stanza 4: (i) know–glow (ii) unwise–surprise

II Pick another example of alliteration from Stanza 2.

✔ ANSWER

"woods would" — The birds of these woods would call you King (both words begin with the /w/ sound).

III Choose the correct opposites from the box and complete the table. (Two words are extra.)

✔ ANSWER

1. perched — flew
2. forgot — remembered
3. foolish — wise
4. pride — humility
5. laughed — cried
6. ignore — notice
7. glow — dim

Extra words: happy, silly.

III Use any four words from the table to make sentences of your own.

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

The parrot flew away from the cage. I remembered to bring my lunch box. It is wise to save water. Did you notice the new painting in our classroom?

🎧 Let us listen

I.1 The crow was unhappy that he lost his food. (True/False)

✔ ANSWER

True

I.2 The crow thought that his lovely feathers made him smart. (True/False)

✔ ANSWER

False (He said, “Even if I don’t have beautiful feathers, I’m smart.”)

I.3 The crow wanted to tell his friends not to be proud. (True/False)

✔ ANSWER

True (He told them, “Do not let pride lose what you have.”)

Let us speak

1 Narrate the poem in the form of a story. Give a different ending to the story.

SAMPLE ANSWER

This is a story about a clever fox named Reynard and Mr Raven. One day, Mr Raven was sitting on a branch with a piece of food in his beak. Reynard saw the food and wanted it. He said, “Sir Raven, you are so handsome! If you sing, the birds will call you King.” Mr Raven was about to open his beak, but then he remembered that his voice was just a croak. He understood the Fox’s trick. He held the food tightly, flew to a higher branch and ate it. Reynard went away hungry, and Mr Raven was happy that he had not been fooled.

✍️ Let us write

1 Write the story you narrated in the form of a conversation. (The Raven does not speak; write only his actions.)

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

Reynard: Good morning, Mr Raven! You seem to be awake so early! (Mr Raven just nods his head.)

Reynard: Oh, Mr Raven, you look so handsome today! Such shiny feathers! (Mr Raven puffs up his feathers but keeps his beak closed.)

Reynard: If you would only sing, the birds of these woods would call you King. (Mr Raven thinks for a moment and shakes his head.)

Reynard: Please, just one little song! (Mr Raven holds the food tightly and flies to a higher branch.)

Reynard: Oh no! My trick did not work. I will have to find my own food. (Mr Raven eats his food happily.)

🔭 Let us explore

1 Make stick puppets and enact the poem.

✔ ANSWER

Activity: Draw or fold (origami) a raven and a fox from paper, stick each one on an ice-cream stick and use the puppets to act out the poem or your story.

✔ ANSWER

children (the couple has no children yet; they only talk about naming a future child)

I.2 Circle the odd one. Who entered the house? guest, robber, Kotwal

✔ ANSWER

guest (the robber and the Kotwal entered the house; no guest came)

💬 Let us discuss (Part II)

I.1 The man tells his plan to his wife. (True/False)

✔ ANSWER

True

I.2 The thief wants to know where they kept their jewels. (True/False)

✔ ANSWER

False (He wants to know where they keep their money.)

💬 Let us discuss (Part III)

1 Along with your classmates, call out the name 'Rama' – softly, loudly and very loudly.

✔ ANSWER

Activity: Say "Rama" first softly, then loudly and then very loudly, just as the wife does in the story.

2 What do you think will happen next in the story?

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

Rama, the village kotwal, will hear his name being called loudly and come running to the house. He will catch the thief.

💬 Let us discuss (Part IV)

I Match the words in Column A with the meanings in Column B.

✔ ANSWER

1. wonder — (vi) a feeling of surprise
2. yard — (iii) an area outside a building
3. chatter — (iv) talk for a long time about unimportant things
4. instead — (i) in place of someone or something
5. closely — (ii) carefully
6. perhaps — (v) maybe

II Fill in the boxes (story map) as you read the story.

✔ ANSWER

Main Characters: the man (husband) and his wife

Setting: their house in a village, one night

Other Characters: the thief and Rama, the village kotwal

Problem: A thief dug his way into their house to steal their money.

Solution: The couple pretended to choose the name 'Rama' for their child and called out 'Rama' louder and louder. The kotwal Rama heard his name, came to the house and arrested the thief.

🤔 Let us think and reflect

I.1(i) What makes the man say the first line ("What's the matter? What are you looking at?")?

✔ ANSWER

He sees his wife sitting up and looking towards the door with a worried face.

I.1(ii) What does the word ‘Ssssh’ mean here?

✔ ANSWER

D. be silent

I.1(iii) How can you tell that the wife was listening carefully?

✔ ANSWER

II Give one reason why the man and his wife were not able to fall asleep.

✔ ANSWER

They heard a noise. Somebody (a thief) was trying to get into their house.

III What did the thief wish would happen? Did it happen?

✔ ANSWER

He wished the couple would stop their ‘silly game’ and talk about their money, or at least fall asleep. No, it did not happen. They kept calling ‘Rama’ until the kotwal came and arrested him.

IV How did the man and his wife get help from the kotwal?

✔ ANSWER

They pretended to talk about naming their child ‘Rama’ and called out the name softly, then louder and then very loudly. Rama, the kotwal, heard his name and came to the house.

V Do you think cleverness can help us solve our problems? Why do you say so?

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

Yes. When we stay calm and think quickly, we can find a smart and safe way out, just as the man and his wife called the kotwal without letting the thief know.

II.1 Why is it important for people to keep their house and themselves safe? Tick the suitable reasons.

✔ ANSWER

Tick: (i) To be safe from injury

(ii) To keep family members and pets safe

(iii) To stop accidents from happening

(v) To stop robbery

(vii) To save money (keeping our things safe from theft and damage saves money)

Do not tick: (iv) visiting the doctor regularly and (vi) paying the electricity bill — these are not about safety.

II.2 Use the hints to share your reasons in complete sentences.

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

I think it's important because it keeps us safe from injury. I feel it's necessary as it protects our family members and pets. The reason we need to look at safety is to stop accidents and robbery.

II.3 Share three ideas on how people can keep their houses and themselves safe.

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

I think they should lock all doors and windows at night and when they go out. They must not open the door to strangers or take things from them. How about keeping emergency numbers like 100 and 112 near the phone?

✍️ Let us write

1 As the man in the story, tell the neighbour what happened (when, where, what, how, why).

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

My wife and I were about to go to sleep last night when we heard someone trying to get into our house. The noise stopped, and we knew a thief had dug his way in. We wanted to call Rama, the kotwal, but we did not want the thief to know. So, we pretended to talk about a name for our child. We said we would call him 'Rama' and began calling out the name, first softly and then very loudly. Rama heard his name and came running to our house. He found the hole in the wall and arrested the thief. Our clever plan saved us from being robbed.

🔭 Let us explore

1 Who will you call if...

✔ ANSWER

you see fire — the fire brigade (101) or the emergency number 112 you see someone getting hurt — an ambulance (108) or 112, and a nearby adult you see a wounded animal — an animal helpline, a vet or an animal shelter you see someone suspicious — the police (100 or 112) and tell an adult you find a lost child — the police (100/112) or Childline (1098) you get lost — my parents (I should remember their phone number), or the police (100/112) or a trusted adult like a shopkeeper or guard

2 Find the right path for the kotwal to catch the thief.

✔ ANSWER

Activity: Trace the path in the maze in your textbook with a pencil, from the kotwal to the thief, without crossing any line.
