⭐ Family · Let's Explore

1 What types of families do you see in your neighbourhood? List the type with the number of households for each type.

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

Example from one neighbourhood:

Type of family	Number of households
Nuclear family	12
Joint family	6
One parent and children	2

Make your own table after looking at the families around you.

2 What types are more frequent? Why do you think this is so?

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

In many towns, nuclear families are more frequent, because people move to cities for jobs and studies, and houses are small.

In many villages, joint families are still common, because families share land, farm work and the house.

3 As a class activity, compare with your classmates' findings and discuss.

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

Put all the tables of the class together and add up each type. Discuss why some areas have more joint families and others more nuclear families.

⭐ Family terms · Let's Explore

1 Make a list of all the members of your family, including a few distant relatives. List their terms in your mother tongue or regional language and find the equivalent in English.

Name	Term in Hindi	Description / term in English
Rani	बहन	mother's brother's daughter (cousin)
Sameer	चाचा	father's younger brother (uncle)

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

Name	Term in Hindi	Description / term in English
(name)	दादी (dadi)	father's mother (grandmother)
(name)	नानी (nani)	mother's mother (grandmother)
(name)	बुआ (bua)	father's sister (aunt)
(name)	मौसी (mausi)	mother's sister (aunt)
(name)	मामा (mama)	mother's brother (uncle)
(name)	ताऊ (tau)	father's elder brother (uncle)

(name)	भाभी (bhabhi)	elder brother's wife (sister-in-law)

Use the real names of your own family members.

2 Notice how, quite often, a single word in your mother tongue or regional language requires several words in English to give a precise definition.

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

Yes. For example, 'mausi' needs 'mother's sister' in English, and 'tau' needs 'father's elder brother'. The English word 'aunt' or 'uncle' alone does not tell us which side of the family the person is from.

⭐ Roles and Responsibilities · Let's Explore

1 Who in your family decides what is to be bought from the market?

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

Usually my mother and father decide together; sometimes my grandmother tells them what is needed in the kitchen.

2 Who cooks food in your home?

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

My mother and grandmother cook; on holidays my father also helps.

3 Who is the oldest person in your family?

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

My grandfather is the oldest person in my family.

4 Who cleans the floor in your home?

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

My mother cleans it, and my sister and I help on Sundays.

5 Who washes utensils in your house?

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

My mother and father take turns; I help by clearing the plates after meals.

6 Who helps you to do your homework?

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

My elder brother (or my grandfather) helps me with my homework.

Compare your answers with classmates: in many families, work is shared among members.

⭐ Shalini's story · Let's Explore

1 Draw a simple tree of this family of seven members.

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

- Acchamma (grandmother, father's mother) at the top.
- Below her, her two sons: Shalini's father (with Shalini's mother) and Chittappa (with Chitti).
- Below Shalini's parents: Shalini and her younger brother.
- Below Chittappa and Chitti: Chinni (their daughter, Shalini's cousin).

(check the picture in your book)

2 Why do you think Shalini's parents bought clothes for everyone?

✔ ANSWER

Shalini's uncle had lost his job, so his family could not buy new clothes for Onam. Her parents bought clothes for them because family members support each other and share what they have, so that everyone can enjoy the festival.

3 What would you have done if you were in Shalini's place?

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

I would also accept the simple cotton dress happily, because it is more important that everyone in the family gets new clothes and is happy at the festival.

🤔 Tenzing's story · Think About It

1 Why does Tenzing's father consult his wife for special expenses?

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

Both parents earn and run the family together. Special expenses affect the whole family, so they discuss and decide together. It shows respect, cooperation and equal partnership.

2 How do you feel about his participation in household chores?

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

I feel it is very good. When the mother got busy with her work, the father helped with cleaning, the garden and cooking. Sharing housework is fair and shows cooperation in the family.

3 What roles do the grandparents fulfil?

✔ ANSWER

- Grandmother: helps prepare food and tells interesting stories full of humour and wisdom.
- Grandfather: helps Tenzing with homework, takes him to the school bus stop, and does social work in the colony (registers complaints about power failure, collected money to repair a neighbour's house).

⭐ Let's Explore (family values)

1 Create a story of a family somewhere in India, where we see some family values practised. Share it with your class either through writing or drawing.

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

Sample: Ravi lives in a village in Bihar with his parents, grandparents and his uncle's family. When his grandfather fell ill, everyone shared the work: his father took him to the hospital, his aunt cooked, and Ravi and his cousin read to him every evening. Ravi learnt that a family stays strong through sevā (service) and sharing.

2 Stage a small drama with your classmates around two or three families, showing some challenging situations the families faced and how they are resolved.

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

Sample idea: Family A's shop is flooded; Family B lends them money and Family C helps clean. Scenes: the problem, the families meeting, working together, the shop opening again. Each student takes a role (parents, grandparents, children, neighbours).

3 What aspects of modern living make some couples opt for a nuclear family? What could be some advantages and disadvantages of the two kinds of families?

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

Reasons: jobs in other cities, small houses in towns, wish for privacy and independence, transfers in service.

	Joint family	Nuclear family
Advantages	Care for children and elders; work and money shared; children learn traditions	More freedom and privacy; quick decisions; fewer disagreements
Disadvantages	Less privacy; more chances of disagreement	Less help in child care and in difficult times; elders may be left alone

⭐ Community · Don't Miss Out

1 There are many more examples of people coming together to do something for the benefit of the community without expecting anything in return. Have you heard of any?

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

Yes. For example, during the COVID-19 lockdown, many people and groups (like gurudwaras running langar) gave free food to the needy. In many villages people clean the village pond together before the monsoon.

⭐ Kamal Parmar's story

1 Discuss this story in your class. What kind of attitude towards the community does it reveal?

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

It reveals a caring and helpful attitude. Kamal Parmar, the teachers and the older children gave their time to help children of their community without expecting anything in return. It shows that everyone can serve the community.

2 What values get reflected in Kamal Parmar's initiative?

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

Sevā (service), dāna (giving), tyāga (sacrifice of his own time and money), kindness, care for children and the importance of education.

3 Think about those underprivileged children. Do you think society has been unfair to them?

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

Yes, in a way. They were living on the street, some had dropped out and some had never gone to school. Every child has a right to education, so society should have taken better care of them.

4 What should society do to make sure that all children get access to education?

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

- Open enough schools near every home and keep education free.
- Give free books, uniforms and meals.
- Find children who are out of school and bring them back.
- Volunteers can teach children who need extra help, like Kamal Parmar did.

Communities are interdependent · Let's Explore

1 Make a list of all people outside your family that are supporting you through their work in one way or another.

> 💡 SAMPLE ANSWER
> Teachers, doctors and nurses, farmers, shopkeepers, milkman, vegetable seller, bus or auto driver, sanitation (municipal) workers, postman, police, electrician, plumber, tailor.

Types of communities · Let's Explore

1 What types of communities are you part of?

> 💡 SAMPLE ANSWER
> My family's neighbourhood, my class and school, my village or colony, my religious community, the sports team or club I play in.

2 Is there a club that you are a part of in school? How does it function?

> 💡 SAMPLE ANSWER
> Yes, the eco club. It has a teacher in charge and student members. We meet once a week, plan activities like planting trees and keeping the school clean, and divide the work among members.

❓ Questions, activities and projects

1 What are some of the rules you follow in your family and neighbourhood? Why are they important?

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

- Family: wake up on time, help with housework, respect elders, finish homework, do not waste food or water.
- Neighbourhood: throw garbage only in the dustbin, keep common areas clean, do not make noise late at night, park vehicles properly.

These rules are important because they help everyone live together peacefully, keep places clean and safe, and make the family and community work smoothly.

2 Do you think some rules are unfair to a few people in the family or community? Why?

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

Yes, sometimes. For example, if only girls or women are expected to do all the housework, or if girls are not allowed to go out to play or study further, the rule is unfair. Work and chances should be shared equally among all members.

3 Describe several situations that you have observed where community support makes a difference. You can draw or write about these.

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

- When a neighbour fell ill, people took turns to cook and take him to the hospital.
- After heavy rain flooded our lane, neighbours together cleaned the drains.
- During a wedding, the whole colony helped with arrangements and food.
- Residents collected money to fix the street lights.
