How I Taught My Grandmother to Read · Check Your Understanding (Part I)

I (i) Cause: _____ → Effect: The morning papers arrived late in the day and weekly magazines would come one day late.

✔ ANSWER

The transport system was not very good in the village.

I (ii) Cause: The grandmother, Krishtakka, never went to school. → Effect: _____

✔ ANSWER

She could not read, so the narrator read the story to her every Wednesday.

I (iii) Cause: _____ → Effect: She was deeply interested in the story and discussed it with her friends.

✔ ANSWER

She identified herself with the novel's protagonist, as she too had never gone to Kashi.

I (iv) Cause: The narrator went to a wedding for a week. → Effect: _____

✔ ANSWER

The grandmother could not read the next episode of Kashi Yatre and was in tears when the narrator returned.

I (v) Cause: _____ → Effect: The grandmother never went to school.

✔ ANSWER

She lost her mother when young, and in those days people did not consider education essential for girls.

I (vi) Cause: The grandmother regretted not going to school. → Effect: _____

✔ ANSWER

She made sure that her children and grandchildren studied well.

II Do you think the narrator expected to see her grandmother in tears when she returned to the village? If yes, why? If no, why not?

✔ ANSWER

No. The grandmother was a strong lady. The narrator had never seen her cry even in the most difficult situations, so she was surprised and worried.

III How might the narrator help her grandmother to fulfil her desire to learn to read and write?

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

The narrator could teach her the Kannada alphabet every day, give her homework, make her read and write simple words, and practise reading the magazine with her until she could read on her own.

How I Taught My Grandmother to Read · Check Your Understanding (Part II)

✔ ANSWER

True. 'I was her only teacher and she was my first student.'

14 The grandmother believed that there was no age limit for learning.

✔ ANSWER

True. She said, 'For learning there is no age bar.'

15 The grandmother touched the narrator's feet as a mark of respect for her as a teacher.

✔ ANSWER

True. She said she was touching the feet of a teacher.

I 6 The narrator was disappointed with the progress her grandmother made in learning to read.

✔ ANSWER

False. The grandmother 'passed with flying colours'; the narrator was proud.

⭐ How I Taught My Grandmother to Read · Critical Reflection

I 1 (i) The phrase 'never seen her cry in the most difficult situations' tells us that the grandmother was ____. (A. strong-willed B. understanding C. considerate D. bold)

✔ ANSWER

A. strong-willed – she stayed strong even in hard times.

I 1 (ii) Grandmother did not reply when the narrator asked if she was alright because she might have been too ____ (emotional/tired) to respond.

✔ ANSWER

emotional

I 1 (iii) Identify the clue from the extract that indicates a rural setting with traditional customs.

✔ ANSWER

'In the night, after dinner, we were sleeping in the open terrace of our house.' Also, the narrator calls her 'Avva', as in the Kannada of north Karnataka, and speaks of 'my village'.

I 1 (iv) Which lines of the extract establish a tender atmosphere?

✔ ANSWER

'It was a summer night and there was a full moon. Avva came and sat next to me. Her affectionate hands touched my forehead.'

I 1 (v) Which of the following aspect is NOT emphasised in the given extract? (A. the emotional turmoil of the grandmother B. the affectionate bond between the narrator and her grandmother C. the grandmother's regret over her lack of education D. the narrator's concern for her grandmother)

✔ ANSWER

C – her regret about not studying is not mentioned in this extract.

I 2 (i) What does the grandmother's statement, "I want to be independent," reveal about her character? (A. She wanted to be literate. B. She desires self-sufficiency. C. She wants to prove her intelligence to others. D. She feels pressured by society to learn.)

✔ ANSWER

B. She desires self-sufficiency – she does not want to depend on others to read.

I 2 (ii) The grandmother's determination shows that learning has no ____. (age limit/gender bias/cultural barriers)

✔ ANSWER

age limit

I 2 (iii) The narrator laughs at her grandmother's decision to learn the alphabet at the age of sixty-two because ____.

✔ ANSWER

she thought her grandmother was too old to learn – her hair was grey, her hands were wrinkled, she wore spectacles and she worked so much in the kitchen.

I 2 (iv) List any two qualities displayed by the grandmother.

✔ ANSWER

Determination and hard work (also self-confidence and love for learning).

I 2 (v) How can we say that the narrator is making assumptions about her grandmother?

✔ ANSWER

The narrator judges her only by her age and looks – grey hair, wrinkled hands, spectacles, kitchen work – and assumes she cannot learn, without giving her a chance.

II 1 Why do you think the grandmother felt embarrassed to ask someone else to read to her while the narrator was away?

✔ ANSWER

She was a respected elder from a well-off family. She felt ashamed to show others that she could not read, and it made her feel dependent and helpless.

Q 2 Why does the narrator initially laugh at her grandmother's determination to learn at the age of sixty-two?

✔ ANSWER

As a child, she thought sixty-two was too old to learn. Her grandmother had grey hair, wrinkled hands, spectacles and a lot of kitchen work, so it seemed funny to her.

Q 3 What significance does the story of Kashi Yatre have in both the grandmother's life and the story?

✔ ANSWER

The grandmother saw herself in the old lady of the novel, who also never went to Kashi. Not being able to read it made her decide to learn. In the end, reading the title Kashi Yatre herself proves she has learnt to read.

Q 4 What does the grandmother's desire to learn the Kannada alphabet reflect about her?

✔ ANSWER

It shows her determination, self-respect and wish to be independent. She believes it is never too late to learn.

II 5 What lessons can we infer from the grandmother's action of touching the narrator's feet?

✔ ANSWER

A teacher should be respected irrespective of age and gender. It also shows the grandmother's humility and gratitude.

II 6 What does the following line tell us about the broader theme of the story? 'For a good cause if you are determined, you can overcome any obstacle.'

✔ ANSWER

The theme is that determination and hard work can overcome any difficulty, even age. Learning has no age bar.

II 7 How effectively does the story highlight the value of education in supporting personal independence?

✔ ANSWER

Very effectively. Though rich, the grandmother felt helpless because she could not read. After learning to read, she proudly says, 'Now I am independent.' This shows that education gives true independence, which money cannot.

How I Taught My Grandmother to Read · Speaking Activity

I Turncoat: speak 'for' and 'against' one topic (Topic 1: It is important to learn a new language apart from your mother tongue. Topic 2: Learning can happen only when you are young.)

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

Topic 1 – For: To begin with, I would like to speak 'for' the topic. A new language helps us talk to people from other states and countries. Moreover, it opens up more jobs and lets us enjoy books and films of other cultures. I strongly feel it also makes our brain sharper.

Against: On the other hand, our mother tongue is the base of our thinking. If students spend too much time on a new language, their mother tongue may become weak. There's no doubt that we can understand concepts best in our own language. So, to put it in a few words, a new language is useful but not necessary for everyone.

How I Taught My Grandmother to Read · Writing Task

I Write a letter to the Editor of a local newspaper on the importance of student participation in adult literacy camps, its benefits for students and society, and ways to encourage more students to volunteer.

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

Rohan Kumar

Class IX, Government Senior Secondary School

Sector 5, Rohini, Delhi

12 November 2026

The Editor

The Delhi Times

Bahadur Shah Zafar Marg, New Delhi

Subject: Students Can Spread Adult Literacy

Sir/Madam,

As a concerned citizen, I would like to draw your attention, through the columns of your newspaper, to the role students can play in adult literacy camps. Many adults around us, including domestic helpers, shopkeepers and our own grandparents, still cannot read or write. They depend on others even to read a bill or a bank form.

The issue at hand affects a large section of society. Adults who cannot read are often cheated and cannot use mobile banking or government schemes. Students who teach in literacy camps help such people become independent. At the same time, students learn patience, kindness and responsibility. Such initiatives nurture a sense of service and bring the generations closer.

One effective way to encourage students might be to give certificates or credit for volunteering. Schools could hold awareness rallies, poster competitions and talks by NGOs. Authorities could consider holding camps in school buildings on weekends. I hope this letter gets published in the columns of your esteemed daily.

Yours truly,
Rohan Kumar

⭐ Bharat Our Land · Critical Reflection

11 The word 'mighty' refers to the ____ of the Himavant.

✔ ANSWER

greatness / strength (huge size and power)

12 The question mark at the end of the fourth and sixth line of the extract is used to ____. ((i) show doubt and uncertainty (ii) emphasise a point (iii) highlight confusion and hesitation (iv) reveal inquiry and curiosity)

✔ ANSWER

(ii) emphasise a point – they are rhetorical questions; no answer is expected.

13 The poet uses the word 'generous' to describe the Ganga. Why?

✔ ANSWER

Because the Ganga gives freely – water for drinking and farming, fertile land, food and livelihood to millions of people.

14 Why has the movement of the river been described as graceful?

✔ ANSWER

The Ganga flows smoothly, calmly and beautifully, like a graceful person; this shows the poet's admiration for her.

15 The poet is implying that the Upanishads are ____ (unmatched/abundant) in their wisdom and spiritual depth.

✔ ANSWER

unmatched

Q 1 How does the poem reflect a strong connection to cultural identity and heritage?

✔ ANSWER

The poet says 'ours' again and again for the Himavant, the Ganga and the Upanishads. He praises India's sages, music, Brahma-knowledge and the Buddha, showing pride in a shared heritage.

Q 2 What can you infer about the poet's attitude towards India from the repeated phrase 'she's peerless, let's praise her!'?

✔ ANSWER

The poet deeply loves and admires India. He believes she has no equal and wants everyone to join him in praising her.

Q 3 What does the line 'many a sage has sanctified this land' suggest about India's spiritual heritage?

✔ ANSWER

It suggests that India has a long, rich spiritual tradition. Many wise saints lived here and made the land holy with their wisdom and prayers.

Q 4 How does the poet connect warriors and music to India's greatness?

✔ ANSWER

Gallant warriors show India's courage and strength, while the 'divinest music' shows its rich art and culture. Together they show that India is great in both bravery and art.

II 5 How does this poem foster a sense of national pride?

✔ ANSWER

It praises India's mountains, rivers, scriptures, warriors, sages and teachers, uses 'ours' to make readers feel India belongs to them, and repeats 'she's peerless, let's praise her!', filling the reader with pride.

Bharat Our Land · Speaking Activity

I In pairs, speak about the aspects of your village/town/city that you feel are an asset.

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

One thing that I find truly wonderful about my city, Jaipur, is its history. If I had to describe it in one word, it would be 'royal'. I have always been fascinated by the way the people keep their traditions alive through folk music, dance and crafts. When it comes to the scenery, my city truly shines because of its pink buildings and forts on the hills. I feel a deep sense of pride when I think about my city.

⭐ Bharat Our Land · Writing Task

I Write a paragraph about a place that you have visited which has stayed in your memory. (Why did you go there? Who did you travel with? How did you prepare? Where did you stay? What activities did you do?)

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

A Trip to Rishikesh

Last summer, I visited Rishikesh with my parents and my younger sister. We went there to celebrate my grandmother's birthday, as she had always wished to see the Ganga aarti. Before the trip, we booked train tickets, packed light cotton clothes and a first-aid kit, and read about the places to see. We stayed in a small guest house near Laxman Jhula, from where we could hear the river all night. In the morning, we walked across the bridges and visited temples. In the evening, we watched the Ganga aarti at Triveni Ghat; the lamps floating on the water looked magical. My father and I also went river rafting, which was thrilling. This trip has stayed in my memory because of the peace of the river and the joy on my grandmother's face.

I Search for poems or songs dedicated to India in your regional language. Share them and explain their meaning.
