Chapter 1 · Yoga for Daily Life · Activity: Identify the Yama

1 Treat your pet dog gently, play with him and never hit or scare him.

✔ ANSWER

Ahimsa – being kind and not hurting any living being.

2 If you break something at home and your mother enquires about it, you tell the truth and not hide it.

✔ ANSWER

Satya – always telling the truth and being honest.

3 You feel a strong urge to play video games, but you control the urge and complete your science project.

✔ ANSWER

Brahmacharya – using your energy wisely and having self-control.

4 In a group discussion, you are tempted to share your friend's idea as your own, but you decide not to steal it.

✔ ANSWER

Asteya – not taking things (even ideas) that do not belong to you.

5 You like a dress at a shop, but thinking of all the clothes you have, you decide not to buy one more because you do not need it now.

✔ ANSWER

Aparigraha – not being greedy and being happy with what you have.

⭐ Chapter 1 · Aparigraha · Activities

Activity 1 Identify a person in your family or neighbourhood who is leading a simple life.

Ask them why they chose a simple lifestyle and what experiences they have had.

Tell your class about your discussion and listen to others' experiences.

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

Sample: I spoke to my grandfather. He grows vegetables, buys only what he needs and repairs old things instead of buying new ones.

- Why: "Needs are few, wants are endless. Living simply keeps me free from worry and debt."
- Experience: he saves money, helps others with it and feels calm and happy.

I learnt that, like Lal Bahadur Shastri, being content with what we have brings peace.

Activity 2 Bring a fairly new small item which you like but don't use often (a book, a toy, etc.).
Sit in a circle and talk about it, then give it away to a friend or someone needy.

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

Sample: I brought a storybook I had already read. I told the class what it is about and gave it to my friend who loves stories.

Giving it away felt good – I felt the joy of giving and learnt to let go of things I don't really need (Aparigraha).

🧪 Chapter 1 · Activity: Identify the Niyama

1 Set a personal goal for a week (completing a project, exercising every day, helping at home) and track your progress.

✔ ANSWER

Tapas – self-discipline and determination to reach a goal.

2 Read good books every day or write a reflective diary.

✔ ANSWER

Svādhyāya – self-study and improving our knowledge.

3 Clean up and decorate the classroom.

✔ ANSWER

Śauca – keeping our body, mind and surroundings clean.

4 Show gratitude.

✔ ANSWER

Santosha – being happy and content with what we have.

5 Do your best and trust that things will work out as they should.

✔ ANSWER

Īśvara Pranidhāna – trusting in something bigger than yourself.

⭐ Chapter 1 · Tapas · Activities

Activity 1 (a) Narrate a story of your role model in the class.

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

Sample: My role model is Malli Mastan Babu. A farmer's son from a small village in Andhra Pradesh, he studied hard, trained in climbing, practised yoga, and climbed the seven highest peaks of the seven continents in 172 days – the first Indian and South Asian to do so.

Activity 1 (b) Discuss the common themes in all the stories told.

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

- Hard work and regular practice (Tapas)
- Self-discipline and determination
- Not giving up when things are difficult
- A clear goal and careful planning

Activity 1 (c) Think and discuss why it is important to have a goal in life.

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

A goal gives direction to our efforts. It helps us plan, use our time well, stay disciplined and keep going when things are hard. Reaching it gives confidence and happiness.

Activity 1 (d) Write about a time when you worked hard to achieve something. What did you learn and how did you feel after achieving the goal?

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

Sample: I wanted to learn cycling. I practised every evening for two weeks, even after falling many times. I learnt that small daily efforts lead to big results. When I rode alone, I felt proud and happy.

Activity 2 1. Setting goals: write one goal (e.g. reading 20 minutes every day).

2. Plan: write the steps.

3. Tracking progress: make a simple chart.

4. Reflection: at the end of the week, discuss what you learnt about self-discipline.

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

Sample goal: Read a storybook for 20 minutes every day.

Plan:

- Keep a book on my study table.
- Read for 20 minutes after dinner, with no TV or mobile.

Chart:

Day	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat	Sun

Read 20 min?	✓	✓	×	✓	✓	✓	✓

Reflection: I missed one day but did not give up. Self-discipline means doing it even when I don't feel like it, and it made me feel proud.

🧪 Chapter 1 · Pratyāhāra · Activity

Activity

1. Eat at least one homemade meal a day with your family.

2. Taste every little bite and every morsel.

3. Do not use mobile phone or TV while eating.

4. Volunteer to serve food and water to your family members.

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

Sample: For a week I ate dinner with my family without TV or mobile. I chewed slowly and noticed the taste and smell of the food. I served water to everyone.

I enjoyed the food more, ate the right amount (Mitabhuk) and felt calm. This is Pratyāhāra – focusing the senses on what we are doing.

💬 Chapter 2 · Preparing for Yogic Practices · Discuss after the practice

Rabbit & Dog Breathing

How did you feel after the practice? Could you concentrate on your breath while practising?

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

Sample: I felt fresh and light, and my body felt warm. At first my mind wandered, but when I counted the breaths I could concentrate on my breathing.

Neck Movements Were you comfortable doing the practice?

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

Sample: Yes. Moving slowly with the breath and keeping the spine erect, my neck felt relaxed and less stiff. (Avoid this practice if you have a neck injury.)

Pavanamuktāsana Kriya Observe the changes in your breathing after the practice.

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

Sample: My breathing became faster at first and then slowed down and became deep and relaxed while resting.

💬 Chapter 3 · Āsanas · Discuss after the practice

Shalabhāsana Were you able to maintain the final posture without any discomfort?

Observe your breathing during the practice.

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

Sample: I could hold the posture for a few seconds; my lower back and legs felt the stretch. While holding the legs up, my breathing became short; when I came down it became slow and deep again.

💬 Chapter 4 · Prānāyāma · Discuss after the practice

Nādīśuddhi Prānāyāma

How did you feel after the practice? Were you able to experience a calm state of mind?

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

Sample: I felt relaxed and peaceful. My breathing became slow and even, and my mind became calm and quiet.

Bhrāmarī Prānāyāma

Could you feel the resonance during the practice? What was your state of mind after the practice?

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

Sample: Yes, I felt the humming vibration in my head and face. After the practice my mind was calm, relaxed and free from worry.

⭐ Chapter 6 · Krīḍā Yoga · Padārtha Grāhi (Mindful Eating)

Game The teacher calls out: carrot, pumpkin, paper, beetroot, bat, cabbage, pencil, drumsticks, beans, radish, eraser, potato; apples, mango, chiku, chair, grapes, orange, desk, banana, pineapple, duster, papaya, watermelon.

For which names do you say "We eat" and for which do you stay silent?

✔ ANSWER

"We eat" (healthy food): carrot, pumpkin, beetroot, cabbage, drumsticks, beans, radish, potato, apples, mango, chiku, grapes, orange, banana, pineapple, papaya, watermelon.

Stay silent (not food): paper, bat, pencil, eraser, chair, desk, duster.

Also stay silent for junk food and things like mud or stone.

⭐ Assessment · Unit 5: Yoga

1. Aparigraha Can you practise Aparigraha in your daily life? Yes or No.

If yes, tick (√) the most suitable answers: 1. Not being greedy 2. Being content with what you have 3. Being grateful for what you have 4. Letting go of wanting more. If no, give reasons.

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

Yes. Tick all four: not being greedy, being content with what I have, being grateful for what I have, and letting go of wanting more.

Example: I don't ask for a new bag when my old one is still good.

2. Tapas

In the context of yoga, what does 'tapas' mean to you? Tick (√): 1. Self-discipline 2. Dedication and daily practice 3. Setting and achieving goals 4. Learning from inspiring stories 5. Reflecting on personal practice

✔ ANSWER

Tick all five – each one is a part of Tapas (the full-marks answer).

3. Yoga Sādhana Tick (√) the things you feel comfortable doing by yourself: Sūkshma Vyāyāma, Śithalīkarana Vyāyāma, Sūrya Namaskāra, Āsana, Relaxation, Prānāyāma, Dhārana, Dhyāna, Krīḍā Yoga.

💡 SAMPLE ANSWER

Sample: tick the ones you can do on your own. Know the difference:

- Sūkshma Vyāyāma – joint movements; Śithalīkarana – loosening exercises
- Āsana – postures; Prānāyāma – breath control
- Dhārana – concentration; Dhyāna – meditation; Krīḍā Yoga – yoga games

4. Āsana Evaluation: Ardhakaṭicakrāsana, Padmāsana, Bhujaṅgāsana, Shalabhāsana. What does the teacher check?

✔ ANSWER

- Ardhakaṭicakrāsana: correct posture, balance and stability (bend sideways only).
- Padmāsana: correct leg placement, straight spine, comfortable pose.
- Bhujaṅgāsana: spine extension, chest lift, relaxed shoulders.
- Shalabhāsana: leg lift, body balance and stability.

- Overall: smooth flow and control over the body.

5. Prānāyāma Evaluation: Nādīśuddhi and Bhrāmarī Prānāyāma. What does the teacher check?

✔ ANSWER

- Nādīśuddhi: correct hand position (Nāsika Mudra), smooth and even alternate-nostril breathing, control of the nostrils.
- Bhrāmarī: a clear, steady humming sound for the right duration, with focus.
